

Greetings Minnehaha Alumni!

After the whirl and excitement of the Christmas season, one would hope that life would slow down, but the alumni office is still moving at a fast pace with a multitude of events coming up in the next few months! The students are busy this week with first semester finals and the Fine Arts department is getting ready for the Student Showcase this weekend and the Madrigal Dinner in February.

Alumni Boys Basketball Players! Join us this Friday, January 18th for an informal appetizer reception before the Redhawks play St. Anthony. Reception begins at 6:00 pm in the Campus Room and the game begins at 7:00pm. Alumni will receive free admission to the game.

Alumni Boys Hockey Players! The Redhawk Hockey team has had a great season! Come cheer the boy's team to another victory as they play Breck on Saturday, February 9th. Lunch will be served before the game at 1:00pm in the South Campus Library and the game begins at 2:00pm. Alumni will receive free admission to the game.

Madrigal Dinner- Travel back to Merry Olde England at the Madrigal Dinner- February 9th and 10th. This annual tradition showcases the talents of many Minnehaha students through a full cast of beggars, monks, minstrels, merchants and entertainers! Purchase tickets by February 5th at a discounted rate through the Alumni Office. More information visit: www.minnehahaacademy.net/news/upcomingevents/madrigal/index.php
